

SIVAS-SONOMA

FOURTH GENERATION FAMILY-CELEBRATED WINE

Sivas-Sonoma pays homage to the family founders and continues this heritage into the second century of winemaking in the Sonoma Valley.

Brand Essence

Sivas-Sonoma (pronounced SEA-vis) is a new brand that pays homage to the Sebastiani's family heritage and tradition in Sonoma. For four generations, the Sebastiani family of Sonoma, California has created high-quality wines through a combination of farming long-time grower relationships and superior winemaking practices. Today, the company is proud to introduce Sivas-Sonoma, a brand that truly showcases the diverse characteristics of Sonoma County appellation wines. The brand includes four varietals: Sauvignon Blanc, Pinot Noir, Cabernet Sauvignon and Old Vine Zinfandel, which are all especially targeted at the wine enthusiast seeking wines with heritage and revel in "new wine" discovery.

Winemaking, Whites

The Sauvignon Blanc is a true expression of the terroir-driven Sonoma varietals. It comes from both the Russian River and Sonoma Valleys, and is herbaceous, with crisp acidity and characteristics of green apple and grapefruit. Offering a medium mouthful, this wine pairs beautifully with a grilled mahi-mahi and vegetables.

Winemaking, Reds

All the Sivas-Sonoma red wines are terroir-driven Sonoma varietals. The Pinot Noir comes from the cool Sonoma Coast and offers the right balance of soft cherry and strawberry flavors. A richer wine in the portfolio, the Alexander Valley Cabernet Sauvignon provides flavors of blackberry, toasty oak and vanilla whereas the Russian River Zinfandel gives off classic Zinfandel characteristics of pepper and spice.
